MORTGAGE BORROWER DISCLOSURE

The following form was developed to assist borrowers in understanding their relationship with mortgage brokerages.

The mortgage brokerage's role (and that of their representatives, mortgage brokers/associates) and obligations to the borrower and the lender will vary depending on the nature of the service relationship between the mortgage brokerage and the lender or borrower. This document describes the mortgage brokerage's role and resulting obligations to you. You are encouraged to discuss this document with your mortgage brokerage representative and ask any questions you may have. No mortgage brokerage or lender can guarantee you the lowest mortgage rate or best terms in the marketplace and as such I am required to inform you that a mortgage brokerage may not always provide the lowest rate or best terms in the marketplace. I will act as a transaction facilitator between the borrower and lenders who have authorized me to offer their mortgage products to borrowers. In this service relationship, I am authorized to offer the mortgage products of one or more lenders to borrowers who are seeking a mortgage. My duties to you, the borrower, are to act competently and honestly and to disclose all relevant information associated with the mortgage dealing. I offer mortgage products from multiple lenders.

I may be compensated by one or more of the following ways: by way of a commission/income or fee paid by the lender, by charging you a fee, by way of a renewal commission from the lender if you keep the mortgage loan in force, by way of a commission/income depending on the length of the term or the amount of the mortgage. I may also receive monies or other non-monetary benefits from the lender that may include additional commission/income based on my volume of business with the lender, my efficiency with the lender, travel/gifts, attendance at seminars or conferences or equity shares with the lender. In some instances I may be paying others part of my compensation for this mortgage referral.

As in any mortgage transaction, there will be additional fees that you will need to pay which may include, but are not limited to property appraisal, default mortgage insurance, legal fees and disbursements and title insurance. In some instances your lender may charge a lender fee or application fee. This would be fully disclosed to you on the mortgage approval from the lender.

NOTICE TO LENDER AND BORROWER:

Pursuant to the Real Estate Act Rules Section 72(1), we will not take any steps to verify any information provided by any parties to the mortgage transaction. Should circumstances dictate that some verification is required, all involved parties to the transaction will be notified.

All parties to the mortgage application must sign this form.
